COLD WEATHER AT TORONTO

SMALL CROWD SEES THURSDAY'S RACES AT WOODBINE.

Thorny Way and Bly Win Principal Races—Sir Barton Due at Kenilworth Oct. 5.

TORONTO, Ontario, September 30.—For the first time at this meeting the colors of J. K. L. Ross were carried home victoriously, when Thorny Way easily accounted for the Epsom Plate for two-year-old Canadian-breds, the chief offering of today's program at Woodbine. The Ross filly came from behind in the stretch and, after racing Flying Ford into defeat, drew away into a safe lead.

Cold weather again prevailed and the attendance was the smallest of the meeting.

The Oxford Plate, at one mile, for three-year-olds, fell to Mrs. F. A. Clark's Bly, which easily held the favorite Besthoff safe after the latter had passed Bobby Allen, the tiring pacemaker.

The Tatton Plate, at one mile and a quarter, was run in two divisions, Trickster II. winning the first.

Ajom was kicked at the post in his last start by Greybourne and will be retired until next year, trainer Schelke reported.

Trainer F. Schelke received word this morning from H. G. Bedwell that Sir Barton would be shipped to Kenilworth on October 5. The son of Star Shoot will be accompanied by four other horses from the Ross establishment. Jockey Sande will leave Laurel to ride him in the special race against Man o' War. The announcement of the choosing of the stewards to represent Mr. Ross and Mr. Riddle will be made in a few days. Mr. Bedwell also stated that Boniface's leg had improved in a wonderful manner and he would be racing again shortly.

Eighteen cars will leave here between Saturday and Monday for the coming meeting at Kenilworth. The T. F. Bornman stable will ship tonight Douglass S., High Wave, Philistine, Old Kinney and others.

Barklie, top weight in the Hendrie Steeplechase, to be run here on Saturday, arrived this morning from New York. M. J. Daly will saddle the fencer for Mrs. W. M. Jeffords.

Starter Harry Morrissey received a telegram from J. F. Coffroth at San Diego that there would be offered a stake of the value of $40,000 and others graduated down to $1,500 for next winter's racing at Tijuana. The opening date will be announced in a few days.

NO STAKE RACING AT LATONIA

J. N. Camden Takes Two Races with His Two-Year-Olds—Favorites Fail.

(BY J. L. DEMPSEY.)

LATONIA, Ky., September 30.—Former Senator Johnson N. Camden's colors figured successfully in a double and his Hartland Stud-bred pair, Darjeeling and Bettina, both sired by Light Brigade, won their respective races. Bettina was opposed by a band of good fillies, but she took them into camp in easy fashion. Darjeeling, the other Camden color-carrier, won from maiden youngsters. His victory was entirely unexpected, being the extreme outsider and rewarded his few supporters to the tune of over 80 to 1. Gossip Avenue and Aphie Dear were given the call in the race won by Bettina and Gossip Avenue flattered extensively during the early part of the race by maintaining a big lead, but the stretch found her tiring fast and Bettina had little difficulty in passing her. Aphie Dear might have been a menacing contender to Bettina but for interference she suffered from.

Bleak, wintry weather was the order this afternoon, with an occasional light snower, and the combination caused a decreased attendance from that present yesterday. Big fields of ordinary racers took part in the dashes and in many instances inexperienced riders subjected some of the others to interference.

Backers of favorites had a disastrous experience, choices being bowled over steadily. Fluzey started their downful when she failed to get a portion of the purse. Her failure was due to interference she suffered from when she was about to move forward on the stretch turn. Our Birthday was the winner here after a hard effort to down Bringhurst.

The best contest of the afternoon came in the sixth race when Cotton Blossom won after an energetic effort on Pool's part when the filly appeared to be beaten.

George Starr and Out the Way, the latter making his first start since undergoing an operation for throat trouble, made a fast pace and rounded into the stretch on even terms many lengths before Cotton Blossom, but both tired, Out the Way particulalrly, and Cotton Blossom, coming on steadily, got up in the last seventy yards to pass George Starr. Last Coin also finished fast and headed Out the Way for third place.

Jockey J. Roberts was suspended for three days by the stewards for disobedience at the post.

Trainer Alex Gordon found the task of bringing Patches back into racing condition this fall futile and has shipped him into retirement at Lexington.

George Phillips, who, by a ruling of the Canadian Racing Associations, was denied the privileges of the tracks in Canada and his entries refused, was notified by the Latonia stewards that he would not be permitted to run his horses here. He was also notified that, under the Kentucky rules, he would not be permitted upon the grounds during the continuance of the Canadian ruling.

The stewards have decided not to accept entries from the stable of M. Boasberg, consisting of the horses Hidden Jewel, Annette Teller and Grove A.

C. H. Knebelkamp bought Dr. Howard yesterday at private sale from P. J. Brannon.

Former Senator Johnson N. Camden was among today's visitors, having just arrived from New York.

Jockey M. Garner suspended riding after the opening race on account of illness. He was scheduled to ride Darjeeling in the second race, but W. Taylor was substituted.

AQUEDUCT'S MEETING CLOSES

Tippity Witchet Springs a Surprise in Defeating Sennings Park and Naturalist Easily.

AQUEDUCT, N. Y., September 30.—Hard showers converted the Aqueduct course into a miniature lake this afternoon, but it brought the victory of the dependable little Broomstick gelding Tippity Witchet for his backers in the Parole Handicap, the feature of the closing day. Naturalist was an odds-on favorite for the race, but the other starters, including Tippity Witchet, Sennings Park, Audacious and Red Red Rose, had strong support. In the running Naturalist was quickest at the start and until far into the stretch. Tippity Witchet was away slowly, but worked his way up on the outside and, challenging Naturalist when a sixteenth out, passed him and won in a mild drive by a length. Sennings Park, under vigorous riding, got up in the closing strides to beat Naturalist for second money.

Only two started in the Stonybrook Selling Stakes, W. C. Clancy's Pickwick and P. T. Chinn's Tom McTaggart. Pickwick was the favorite and an easy winner. Tom McTaggart led until at the eighth post, where Pickwick passed him readily.

Episode, winner of the second dash, was bid up and bought by R. McKeever for $2,605. He was the public choice, accounted for the race, which was at six and a half furlongs, but he only had a head advantage over the James MacManus filly Gilt Fringe at the finish. The latter was the early pacemaker, but was taken back under restraint. She was sent for the race too late, after permitting Episode to take the lead on the stretch bend. Under proper riding Gilt Fringe should have won. Rustler, which opened the favorite, ran away a quarter of a mile before the start and after the horses were sent away, attempted to swerve out. King's Belle was an easy third.

Lad's Love proved much the best of the half dozen that went to the post in the opening dash. Withdrawals reduced the original field of sixteen to six. Nightstick was the heavily backed favorite, but the best the aged Broomstick gelding could do was second place. Lad's Love had a margin of six lengths over Nightstick at the finish, but he came back to the stand lame. Sammy Kelly saved ground on the stretch turn and outstayed Hendrie in the closing drive. Hendrie was too much used in chasing the pacemakers after beginning slowly. Ticacey was another to show lameness after the finish.

Biff Bang was bid up and sold to L. J. Bauer for $4,500.

M. J. Potter claimed Hendrie out of the first race for $2,105.

Peter Reilly claimed Tom McTaggart out of the fourth race for $5,300.

LAUREL PARK OPENS TODAY

BALTIMORE, Md., September 30.—The racing scene in Maryland will shift tomorrow from Havre de Grace to Laurel Park, where the autumn meeting of the Maryland State Fair will be inaugurated. While no stake feature graces the opening day card, the program is a diversified one, calculated to furnish an afternoon of good sport. The Chancellors Point Purse, at one mile, is the most pretentious offering, with a small but select field, comprised of Milkmaid, Crank, Blazes, Routledge, Camoufleur and Tantalus to contest it. A return of fair weather is all that is necessary to assure a banner meeting at Laurel.

Only a small crowd journeyed to Havre de Grace today to witness the closing day program. The $10,000 Havre de Grace Handicap was the farewell attraction and E. B. McLean's grand little racer The Porter was returned the winner of it. He carried 129 pounds and under Butwell's good riding scored an impressive victory. Dr. Clark was second and Irish Kiss third, while Leochares and Bolster ran unplaced.

TO SELL SOME OF VANDERBILT HORSES

A. K. Macomber is reported to have sailed from France on the Mauretania on a flying trip to New York, expecting to return on the same boat. It is understood that he is coming here to make arrangements with certain American turfmen for the purchase of some of the late W. K. Vanderbilt horses, as he does not wish to retain all of them. He probably has now the largest racing establishment in the world.

William B. Duke, for many years Vanderbilt's trainer, has consented to continue handling the Vanderbilt string for Mr. Macomber during the remainder of the autumn racing season, but Thomas Murphy remains the trainer of the original Macomber horses.

Frank O'Neill of St. Louis, winner of this year's Derby, and for many years the top-notch jockey of the French turf and for a long time Vanderbilt's first string jockey, has been retained by Macomber, replacing Guy Garner of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who last year rode for an Armenian millionaire and then went over to Macomber for a big salary.

THINK WESTY HOGAN WAS LITTLE BOY

TORONTO, Ontario, September 30.—At today's meeting of the Canadian Racing Associations routine business was transacted. Hospital bills to the amount of $4,200 were paid for injuries sustained to jockeys during the summer. The ruling passed against G. L. Strang some years ago was ordered terminated. Jockey A. Claver was granted a full license. Claver is under contract to the Ross stable.

Another meeting of the Canadian Racing Associations will be held in Toronto next month. The "Little Boy" ringing case was put over till the next meeting. The officials are pretty well satisfied that the horse which ran at the Ottawa's meeting was Westy Hogan. The people who manipulated the ringing had five horses stabled at the Fair Grounds in Detroit and it is presumed that some of these horses have been running on other tracks. The race in which the filly Handy Rose beat Plantoon at Ottawa is also under suspicion.

SUNFIRE REPLACES PRINCE PALATINE

Duc Decazes, who sold Prince Palatine to E. W. Simms, has replaced the Prince in Normandy with Sunfire, which was bred by J. B. Joel, sent to India, returned under lease to the duke last year. Sunfire proved so popular that he has been sold to stay in Normandy. The young sire is by Sundridge—Sweet Lassie, from Our Lassie, which won the Oaks.

EPISODE followed the leaders closely in the early running, saved ground when entering the homestretch and took the lead, but tired and just lasted long enough. GILT FRINGE rushed the lead and set the early pace, then was taken back and saved to the homestretch and, finishing fast, would have won in another stride. KING'S BELLE had no mishaps and ran a fairly good race. RUSTLER bolted to the outer rail when entering the homestretch, losing much ground. CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

The jockeys riding at Chagrin Falls demanded more money Tuesday, but were told to ride at the old price or leave. They rode.

The leading English rider, Stephen Donoghue, rode his hundred and first winner of the year at Alexandra Park, London, September 12.

Second on the list of winning riders in Roumania is McIntyre, the American jockey, who went to Bucharest at the close of the great war.

Invitations to witness the Man o' War-Sir Barton race at Kenilworth Park have been extended to Dominion and Provincial Cabinet members.

A. M. Orpen is at a loss to know what the Man o' War-Sir Barton race should be called and welcomes suggestions as to a most appropriate name.

Man o' War galloped a mile and an eighth in 1:59 Tuesday at Belmont Park. The great horse is taking his preliminary work for the big race at Kenilworth Park in grand style.

The death occurred in Paris on September 11 of Prince Constantin Radziwill, aged 70 years. He was a brother-in-law of the well-known turf patron M. Edmond Blanc. The prince owned and raced good horses a decade ago.

The Grand Prix de San Sebastian, 100,000 pesetas (19.30 cents each), 2,400 meters, was won Sunday, September 12, by Brabant, belonging to Duc de Toledo, and ridden by Lucien Lyne, the American jockey. "Duc de Toledo" is the racing name of King Alfonso.

The horses Lady Mildred and Oaklawn Belle, which were not permitted to start at the recent Devonshire meeting, were placed in good standing by Judge Murphy during the Thorncliffe meeting, their owner having produced the evidence desired. In the future they will be trained by R. L. Nelson of Detroit.

LEADING OWNERS OF THE YEAR

The close and interesting contest between H. P. Whitney and J. K. L. Ross for the leadership of the money-winning owners of the year goes merrily on, with a slight advantage in favor of Mr. Whitney. Both have won over $200,000 to date and each has a chance to reach the $300,000 mark. Victory for Sir Barton over Man o' War in the special race to be run at Kenilworth and success for the Whitney colors in the Latonia Championship Stakes would put each of these gentlemen within reaching distance of the above-mentioned sum. At present the standing of these two powerful racing establishments is as follows:

	1st	2d	3rd	Won.
H. P. Whitney	65	50	35	$210.415
J. K. L. Ross	100	89	50	207.515
